The Ceramic League of the Palm Beaches is pleased to have Peter Meyerhoefer as our Juror for "Clay Energy" a Scholarship Fundraiser at Eaton Fine Art. He writes:

I took my passion for collecting art and turned that passion into Meyerhoefer Art Events and Consulting. My goal is to work with and feature local South Florida artists in group shows and exhibitions. My philosophy has always been 1) that good art does not need be expensive. 2) Everyone can afford to have original art in their home and 3), if you love the art that is all that matters.

From 2006 to 2008, I operated Meyerhoefer Gallery in downtown Lake Worth. In that time period I featured more than 60 artists from Stuart to Key West. Their work included paintings, photography, sculpture and ceramics. I worked to constantly challenge my clients and guests with unique approachable art.

I always look for art that makes me stop and take a second look....art that speaks to me and makes me listen.

Enjoy the show and if a piece of art is speaking to you, stop and listen and hopefully take it home to enjoy for many years to come.
