The fascinating and beautiful world of Art Nouveau Ceramics will be available up close to a small group, when we visit the newly opened Galerie Fledermaus on Worth Avenue. Gallery owner Jerry Suqi has invited us on Tuesday, Feb. 24, 2026, to view his expansive ceramics collection. He will talk about the imaginative, creative artists of the late 1800s/early 1900s, their glowing glazes and unusual shapes and forms. (Note: There is no seating available, so we will be standing around the gallery.)

Before visiting the Galerie, we propose having lunch at Pizza Al Fresco, also on Worth Avenue just a couple of vias away from our Ceramic learning event. Lunch will be at 11:30 am, and we will meet with Mr. Suqi at 2 p.m.
