JOIN US FOR THE OPENING OF FIRED AND FABRICATED
COME CELEBRATE OUR ARTISTS AND THEIR WORK

The time is drawing near for the opening of “Fired and Fabricated” in collaboration with the Palm Beach Modern Quilt Guild. The efforts put forth by our members to take this show from concept to reality, as well as those who submitted work, has been full of positivity, energy, enthusiasm, and excitement! This marks the first time in recent memory that the league has put together a show of this magnitude. With the incredible support of LULA Lake Worth Arts, Artists of Palm Beach County, HATCH 1121, and collaborating organization: Palm Beach Modern Quilt Guild, the show is sure to be a success enjoyed by all. With sincere gratitude we thank ALL who made this show possible. Below please find the press release and details:

The Artists of Palm Beach County presents “Fired and Fabricated: A Collaboration of the Palm Beach Modern Quilt Guild and the Ceramic League of the Palm Beaches” at the HATCH 1121 Gallery in Lake Worth Beach from September 5 to 27. The exhibition highlights the work of more than 50 textile and ceramic artists. Coiled, thrown, and slab-built ceramic pieces and sculptures are shown next to hand-stitched and machined quilts, exploring an array of color and form ranging from realistic to abstract. The show was curated by Heather Couch, Dr. Nazaré Feliciano, and Virginia Walton. Feliciano, an internationally renowned ceramic artist, comments, “The juxtaposition of the soft fabrics engaging visually with the ceramic sculpture is unique and scintillating.” Couch, a Palm Beach Atlantic University art professor, adds, “Talented ceramic artists from Palm Beach County showcase a wide variety of creative work from sculptural to functional pieces.”

Susan Skatoff, President of the Palm Beach Modern Quilt Guild, says, “Our guild is immensely proud to exhibit works that challenge the perception of fabric as merely soft or domestic: these quilts are architectural, graphic, and bold, creating a dynamic dialogue with brilliant ceramic forms. Placing our work in conversation with contemporary ceramics highlights the shared language of texture, color, and form that all artists speak, regardless of their medium.”

Meet the artists at the opening reception on Friday, September 5, from 5-8 p.m. The HATCH 1121 Gallery will be open for visitors on Saturdays and Sundays, September 6-21, from 10 a.m. to noon, and 4-6 p.m., and Saturday, September 27, from 10 a.m. to noon. Admission is free. Art lovers can also meet the artists at the closing reception from 4-5 p.m. on September 27.

In addition to the exhibition, artist demonstrations and classes will be held at HATCH 1121 throughout the month of September. For tickets, visit:

Carole Pichney, President of Artists of Palm Beach County, states, “APBC is thrilled to support the efforts of these two groups of artists in their exhibition. It is an example of how small arts organizations can work together to help each other share their art with the community. We thank LULA Lake Worth Arts and HATCH 1121 for their generous support of our groups.”

Artists of Palm Beach County is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to helping member artists achieve their artistic goals and utilize their talents to enrich the community. APBC provides artists with resources, skill development, and exhibition opportunities, and empowers the youth in the community to embrace the study and practice of art.
